1. Complete all appropriate items on this form. All entries except the signature and those requested to be in the servicemember's own handwriting, must be typed or printed in ink.
  2. Include the name, address, and social security number (if available) of the beneficiary(ies), and the relationship of the beneficiary(ies) to the servicemember (e.g. father, sister).
  3. If a servicemember wants to designate a beneficiary other than would be normal under his or her family circumstances, see "Unclear or Unusual Beneficiary Designations" (section 6.03) in the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance Handbook, Handbook 29-75-1. (www.insurance.va.gov)
  4. An authorized agent of the Uniformed Service must witness the signature of the servicemember. This representative must sign his or her name below that of the servicemember and should include the date he or she received the form.
  5. This form, properly completed, is authority to a payroll office to initiate or change the deductions for insurance premiums if the amount of insurance is changed or cancelled.
  6. If this form is being used to decline SGLI coverage, inform the servicemember that this action will mean that he/she will no longer have Family SGLI coverage - both spousal coverage and dependent child coverage. Have the servicemember complete SGLV 8286A and take action to end payment of Family spousal premiums.
  7. Inform the servicemember that if he or she has questions about this form, he or she may obtain the advice of a military attorney at no expense to the servicemember.
  8. After the form is completed in its entirety, you should:
    - Make two photocopies of the completed form (page 2), and Beneficiary Continuation (page 4) if applicable.
    - Distribute as follows:
      - Original Copy of page 2 and Original Copy of page 4 (if applicable) - Must be promptly filed in the official personnel file of the member
      - Photocopy 1 of page 2, Photocopy 1 of page 4 (if applicable), Directions to Servicemember (page 3), and Introduction to VA Benefits (page 5) - To servicemember
      - Photocopy 2 of page 2 and Photocopy 2 of page 4 (if applicable) - To the Active or Reserve component of the Uniformed Service.
- Remember: If this form is used to decline SGLI coverage and the servicemember has Spousal Family SGLI coverage, you should take action to discontinue payment of spousal Family SGLI premiums.
- Note: Please do not send any of the forms or copies to the Office of Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance or to the Department of Veterans Affairs.

What You Should Know - This insurance is granted under the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance provisions of Title 38, United States Code, and is subject to the provisions of that title and its amendments, and regulations promulgated thereto. This form must be correctly completed, signed and received by your Uniformed Service before your death in order for this designation to be valid. An authorized agent of the Uniformed Services should witness your signature.

Periods of Coverage - This insurance is in effect throughout the period of full-time active duty or active duty for training. Coverage is also in effect on a full-time basis for reservists who are assigned to a unit or position in which they may be required to perform active duty or active duty for training and each year will be scheduled to perform at least 12 periods of inactive duty training that is creditable for retirement purposes under Chapter 1223 of Title 10. Coverage continues for 120 days following separation or release. You may convert your SGLI to Veterans' Group Life Insurance within 120 days of separation without proof of good health, or within one year and 120 days with proof of good health by contacting the Office of Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (see below).

Instructions On Completing This Form -

1. Type or print in ink all items except where otherwise noted.
2. Naming Beneficiaries
  - A. A new SGLV-8286 must be completed to change your beneficiary. You may name anyone as beneficiary without his/her knowledge or consent. However, your spouse will be notified if you reduce coverage or name a beneficiary other than your spouse or an authorized child.
  - B. If the beneficiary is a married woman, use her given first and middle names. For example, use Mary Lisa Smith, instead of Mrs. John Smith.
  - C. A named beneficiary will NOT be changed automatically by any event occurring after you complete this form (e.g. marriage, divorce, etc.). Your beneficiary cannot be changed by, and is not affected by, any other documents such as a divorce decree or will.
  - D. If you want to name more than four principal or contingent beneficiaries, list those beneficiaries on the Beneficiary Continuation Form (page 4) and check the block under the principal or contingent blocks on page 2, indicating that you have done so. The Beneficiary Continuation Form (page 4) should then be attached to page 2 of the 8286. (Note: The electronic version of Form SGLV 8286(E) allows between ten and thirty principal and/or contingent beneficiaries before a continuation form is needed).
  - E. If you name minor children as beneficiaries, the insurance will be paid to the court-appointed guardian of the children's estate.
  - F. You can establish a trust for the benefit of the children and name the trust as beneficiary. A trust names a trustee of your choice to be legally responsible for administering the insurance proceeds for the children. Naming a trust as a beneficiary on this form does NOT create a trust. Before naming a trust as beneficiary, you should consult a military attorney for assistance.
3. Social Security Number - Do not delay completing this form if you do not have a beneficiary's social security number. The social security number helps us to locate the beneficiary, but is not required.
4. Shares to each beneficiary - If you name more than one beneficiary, the sum of the shares must equal 100% or the full dollar amount of your insurance. Example: mother $200,000 50% 1/2 father $200,000 or 50% or 1/2 Total $400,000 100% 1.
5. Payment Option - You may choose whether you want the beneficiary to receive payment in one lump sum or in 36 equal monthly payments by writing "lump sum" or "36" in the column labeled Payment Option. If you choose 36 payments, the beneficiary cannot choose to receive a lump sum payment. If you want the beneficiary to have a choice at the time of payment, write "lump sum" or leave the block blank.
6. Provisions For Payment Of Insurance -
  - A. If you name more than one principal beneficiary and one or more predeceases you, the share(s) will be divided equally among the remaining principal beneficiaries, unless otherwise stated. If there are no surviving principal beneficiaries, the proceeds will be divided among the contingent beneficiaries.
  - B. If you do not name a beneficiary, or if there are no surviving beneficiaries, or if you indicate that payment should be made by law, the proceeds will be paid in the following order: 1. Widow or widower 2. Children in equal shares (the share of any deceased child will be distributed equally among the descendants of that child) 3. Parent(s) in equal shares or all to surviving parent 4. A duly appointed executor or administrator of your estate 5. Other next of kin

What Your Beneficiaries Should Know - Upon your death, your beneficiary(ies) should send a claim to the Office of Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance, 290 West Mt. Pleasant Ave, Livingston, NJ 07039. Your beneficiary may also call 1-800-419-1473 for claim information.

What You Should Know About VA Benefits - Once you enter into the service, you may be eligible for a variety of benefits offered by the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs (VA). These benefits include, but are not limited to, the following:

Compensation & Pension - You may be eligible for compensation for any injuries or illnesses you suffer while on active duty or any pre-existing disabilities which are aggravated by your service in the Armed Forces. You may also be eligible for a disability pension if you are a wartime veteran with limited income and you are no longer able to work.

Education & Training - The Montgomery GI Bill is your chance to secure a source of financial assistance for your future education and training needs. You can only enroll in this program when you are entering active duty for the first time. After completing 24 months of active duty service, you can begin receiving your GI Bill benefits for an approved program of education or training. Some family members of disabled or deceased veterans are also eligible for education benefits.

Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment - The Vocational Rehabilitation & Employment program helps certain servicemembers and veterans who incur injuries and/or illnesses during their military service to get and keep suitable employment. Among the services offered are employment assistance, self-employment assistance, training in a rehabilitation facility, and college and other training. Severely disabled veterans may receive assistance to improve their ability to live independently.

Life Insurance - You may be eligible for VA life insurance if you are injured or disabled while you are in the service and VA gives you a rating for your injury or disability. Up to $10,000 in life insurance coverage is available at standard insurance rates. If you are totally disabled, you may also apply for a waiver of premiums. For those veterans who are eligible for this waiver, additional coverage of up to $20,000 is available. You can also convert your SGLI insurance to Veterans' Group Life Insurance, which offers renewable five-year term coverage at competitive rates.

Home Loans - VA can guarantee part of a loan from a private lender to help you buy a home, a manufactured home, a lot, or certain types of condominiums. VA also guarantees loans for building, repairing, and improving homes. If you already have a mortgage, VA may be able to help you refinance your loan at a lower interest rate.

How To Contact VA - For more information about VA benefits, you may visit your local VA office or call us toll-free at 1-800-827-1000. For information on VA life insurance benefits, call 1-800-669-8477. For more information on VA education benefits, call 1-888-442-4551. You can also get information on VA's website at "www.va.gov" by clicking on Veterans Benefits & Services.
